Session 1: U.S. Tokens, Medals & So-Called Dollars

Lot 1: 1863 1c Civil War Token, NGC AU58 F-97/389a An interesting article from the NY Times, dated December 1, 1895, reports a story from the Philadelphia Inquirer about a "Copper Token from the Mint". As it turns out, a curious reader describes this token and having received it from the US Mint. A "rubbing" of the coin was shown to R.A.MeCLure who was a curator at the Mint. He noted that these token were privately issued between 1863 and 1864 by private individuals and that perhaps just 5,200 or so were made. The article notes these were not prohibited by the US Government until 1867, but the clerk would not knowingly allow the token to circulate and certainly didn't notice. Estimate $75-$100

Lot 2: 1863 1c Civil War Token, NGC AU50 F-610c-3a This store card featuring an Indian Head device was made for L.H. Robinson, dealer of groceries, from Marshall, Michigan. Estimate $50-$75

Lot 3: 1863 Civil War Store Card, NGC MS63BN F-630H-1a A fabulous design with a mounted Deer as the main device on the obverse. This token produced for J.L. Bode, "birdstuffer", also markets Bohemian Fancy glasswork at 16 N. William Street, NY. Estimate $175-$200

Lot 8: (1912) Illinois Campaign Medal, Chester W. Church NGC EF40BN Chester W. Church was a Republican from the 11th District of Chicago, who was a candidate for Secretary of State of Illinois in 1912 but was defeated by the incumbent James A. Rose. This is a unique opportunity for a collector of Illinois history to acquire such a rarity. Estimate $100-$150

- Lot 20: 1866 1c Extremely Fine Light chocolate brown. Estimate $125-$150

Session 2: U.S. Type, Silver & Pattern Coins

Lot 33: 1905 5c Brilliant Uncirculated Superb! Super clean. Estimate $85-$115

This 13 star variety is by far the toughest to obtain, especially in choice condition. A light plum patina has developed on the surface of this old lady. This is a fabulous piece of American history. Estimate $6,500-$8,000

Lot 49: 1923-S 25c Extremely Fine Details This coin exhibits excellent details but poor surface quality. Estimate $600-850

Lot 50: 1797 50c PCGS Fine 12 Truly a wonder-coin and the highlight of the sale. This two year type, produced in 1796-7, is the rarest of all of the U.S. silver coins. Our coin is nearly flawless in every respect. A smooth even wear is evident on problem free surfaces. There are no distractions to mention, not even the slightest blemish. Estimate $40,000-$45,000

Lot 51: 1807 50c Draped Bust PCGS EF45 This last year of issue is choice for the grade. Estimate $1,000-$1,500

Lot 56: 1945 50c PCGS MS65 Brilliant white. Estimate $85-$100

Lot 57: 1795 $1.00 Flowing Hair, three leaves NGC VF20 Lovely original grey patina still exists over uncleaned natural surfaces. The smooth even wear that this coin exhibits makes it a perfect type example. Estimate $4,500-$5,000
